

Imports, Exports, and Exchange Rates: Crash Course Economics #15

By the channel Crash Course

Available on YouTube: Imports, Exports, and Exchange Rates: Crash Course Economics #15 - YouTube

1. Which country is the largest importer in the World? Why?
2. In terms of both import and export, which is the largest trading partner of the US? Can you provide any figure?
3. Are the US a large exporter? Which kind of products do they sell abroad?
4. What is the difference between net export, a trade surplus, and a trade deficit?
5. Is it necessarily bad to have a trade deficit?
6. To what extent is NAFTA (ALÉNA) good or bad for individuals and the economy?

7. What about protectionism? Which international organization is mentioned? What do they do regarding protectionism?

8. In international trade, do states and individuals act in the public interest or in self-interest? Is it good or bad for the interest of the whole economy and/or for individual interests?

